The eighth round will be played to-day Half Back of Delaneys Team and the ninth and final round will be played to-morrow.

Frank Marshall, with seven games won will likely win the tournament. He has defeated Judd, the next best man in the tourney.

The other places are not as secure, Judd of St. Louis is second, with five games won and two lost. Ed Schrader, also of St. Louis, Uedemann and Kemeny all have equal chances of winning third or better honors, as each has a drawn game with four won and two lost. If Ed Schrader wins his drawn game and his eighth-round game, and Judd loses, he will go ahead of the local champion. If Judd wins to-day and Schrader wins both the regular and drawn game, he can only tie the former.

ST. LOUIS POOL PLAYER WINS

Hueston's Clever Work Gives a Victory to Him Over Weston at Broadway Tourney.

Thomas Hueston of St. Louis beat Weson in the Broadway tournament last night by a score of 125 to 12c. Hueston is St. Louis's only representative among the champions, and naturally the local follower of the game gave a welcome to him v a he showed that he could hold his own against the veteran welcome to him von he showed that he could hold his own against the veteran Weston.

Hueston has played some excellent pool, but his performance against Weston last night was easily his banner work. He shows that he has mastered the art of generalship to a degree that will probably make him the master of his craft. So close was the match that either player could have won on the last frame. Hueston showed his nerve by working eight ivories into the pocket on the last frame. The St. Louis boy played solid and conservative. He did not go after the bad "leaves" and carefully nursed the cue ball until he had it in a position to click the ivories into the pockets with regularity. Hueston's victory ties him with Jerome Keogh of Buffalo, each player having won three games and lost one.

Hennerich, Kinney and Pechmann advanced thirteen yards on four plays, but St. Louis was again penalized five yards for an off-side play. Kinney's advancement of two yards brought the ball to the thirty-yard line, and Howe tried from this point to kick a field goal. He failed, and Cantrill returned the kick, St. Louis failing on the ball.

Pechmann then made two and one-half yards, and on the next play made a run of fifteen yards. Kinney Hennerich and Pechmann then brought the ball far enough for Howe to try again for goal, but he failed.

ST. L. UNIVERSITY WINS HARD GAME

Local Eleven Defeats Kentucky Players by Score of Five te Nothing.

Scores Only One Touchdown of Contest After Taking Ball at Seventy-Yard Line.

St. Louis University defeated Kentucky University at the Stadium yesterday in the fastest football game played this season on a local field. The score was 5 to 0. which indicates that the game was not a walkover for the locals.

The only score was made by Pechmann after a seventy-yard run, Kentucky losing it on a fumble.

Barring a few fumbles on the part of the local players at times when a touchdown and a field goal seemed possible, the game was well played, and at no time did either side seem to have a great advantage, as both were evenly matched, save in weight. The Kentuckians had a little the shade in this line. Captain Cantrill said that his team weighed on an average of 184 pounds. while Delaney's men tipped less than 180. The defense of both teams was strong and many times each held the other and gamed the bail on downs.

This was especially noticeable in the second half. The ball was on St. Louis's fiveyard line in the hands of the Kentucky players. Everyone looked for a touchdown, Kentucky tried a buck, hurdle and an end run, bur St. Louis held on the one-foot line and the ball went into their hands. A kick sent the skin to center field and Kentucky's hopes of scoring were shuttered.

field and Kencicky's hopes of scoring were shattered.

Another time in the first half, the ball was in dangerous territory for the Kentucky side, and the backs of St. Louis were gaining steadily. When a touchdown seemed only a matter of time, the St. Louis players lost the ball on a fumble, and the ball was sent back.

The teams fought hard during the first half, but neither side succeeded in scoring, sithough St. Louis seemed to have a chance to score, and Howe tried twice for goal kicks from the thirty-five-yard line, but the wind was too strong, and the ball went wide.

Cantrill then kicked the bail and Wikins fell on it. Kelly fumbled on the next formation and the ball went to 8t. Louis. Pechmann gained one yard. Howe was compelled to kick to make the distance. This was at center field. He dropped the ball, but picked it up, but not in time to kick. He was rushed back for a loss of twenty yards. Kinney lost four yards on the next play.

Howe again kicked, Hayden bringing the ball back for three yards. Wilkins advanced two yards, but Cantrill was held. Wilkins and Cantrill gained four, the latter losing the ball on the next play. Hennerich, Dingman and Pechmann gained ten yards. Later Howe fumbled the ball, but Griffin fell on it. Howe kicked ten yards, Dingman catching the ball. Kinney and Irwin brought the ball to Kentucky's fifteen-yard line, and the time for first half was called.

Wilkins was held. Cantrill made three, but Wilkins lost the ball. Pechmann picking it up and running seventy yards for a touchdown. On his way down the field he was attacked by three players, but dodged them and ran behind the line. The wind was so strong that Howe's kick failed to goal.

Cantrill kicked out of bounds, but when he booted again. Irwin caught the ball, Kinney and Pechmann gained three and Howe was compelled to kick to make the distance. Evans blocked the ball, but Kinney fell on it.

Dingman advanced three and Pechmann attempted to kick. Lindsay passed the ball so that it went over Ed's head and went in back of the goal line. Pechmann managed to bring it out to the five-yard line before being downed.

It was then that everybody looked for Kentucky to tie the score. With the ball on the five-yard line, Wilkins tried to hurdle, but gained only one yard on the play. Cantrill bucked the line and when he downed it rested on the two-yard line. Once more he tried to cross the line, but the local defense was so strong that the ball only reached the one-foot line and went into St. Louis's hands.

SENT TO CENTER FIELD. Pechmann sent the skin to center field on a kick. Pile caught it and returned several yards. Evans made an end run of fifteen, but Wilkins and Cantrill were held. The latter made a place kick and Howe fumbled the ball at the fifteen-yard line, Kentucky taking the ball.

Cantrill made three yards, but lost the ball on a fumble. Hennerick gained two yards. Howe was then sent to the side line in favor of Dillon after having a tilt with Simpson. It is said that the latter struck: Howe, and the umpfre, being a Kentucky man, sent the St. Louis player to the shench. Shaw retallated, however, and sent Simpson to the side lines.
The ball was kept zigzagging for a while and time was called.
